File Storage Boxes

File storage boxes make it easy to organize, protect, and transport important records, paperwork, or archival documents. Designed with a sturdy corrugated cardboard construction, they're a reliable choice for offices, schools, or home offices. We sell our file storage boxes in case quantities with 12 boxes per case and each box has pre-printed areas for filling in information about its contents. If you'd like to inquire about bulk pricing, please reach out to us on our contact page.
