Stationery Folding Cartons

Our strong two-piece cartons are designed for securely storing business cards, stationery, and other small documents. The durable fiberboard construction protects contents from dust, bending, and everyday wear and tear. The pieces snap into place instantly, offering quick assembly without the need for tape or glue. We recommend our stationery folding cartoons for offices, print shops, or any business that mails and organizes paper goods. We ship and store these flat, selling them in case quantities.
