Color Coded Labels

Introducing color-coded labels to your system is a simple yet effective way to bring clarity and efficiency. By assigning different colors to different categories, inventory types, workflows, or any other ways you sort your products, these labels help your team quickly identify, sort, and manage items. Whether you use them for inventory tracking, filing, or safety and compliance tagging, color-coded labels help streamline operations without sacrificing accuracy.